

NAUGHTON TAKES SLAP AT NEVADA MINING CAMPS

PUBLISHES ARTICLE OF SOMEWHAT SARCASTIC TONE IN EXAMINER.

W. W. Naughton, the well known sporting writer of the San Francisco Examiner, evidently has a grudge against the mining camps of Nevada for in an article of somewhat sarcastic tone, he says that every camp with a few holes in the ground is bidding for the Jeffries-Johnson fight. We would be willing to wager that when it came to putting up the ready money as a forfeit for the fight that the mining camps of southern Nevada would produce a greater amount than that offered by any sporting club in the metropolitan cities. His article in the Examiner reads as follows:

"Now that Jeffries has said he will fight Johnson, bidding for the event will be resumed, and one shudders to think of the fortunes in uncertified checks and undeposited gold that will be placed at the disposal of the champion. Every mining camp with a few holes in the ground to exploit and every hamlet that is wrestling with a town lot problem will be 'there with bells,' to say nothing of the individual saloon keepers and real estate boomers that will of necessity be heard from.

"So far the most pretentious of the new crop of bids is one sent to Beanie Walker of the Los Angeles Examiner. It is a $70,000 nibble, and the bidders, all unconscious of sarcastic suggestiveness, describe themselves as proprietors of a Mexican BULL arena.

"To facilitate business, so far as this paper's sporting page is concerned, the writer has formulated a few hints for bidders.

"Offers of less than $50,000 must reach this office before 8 o'clock each evening. It is intended to tabulate these small bids, and this takes time. "As between $50,000 and $70,000 seems to be the favorite bidding ground, it is suggested that bids be made in odd figures, such as $51,000, $62,000, $73,000, and so on. This will in a measure obviate repetition and add the spice of variety to the list of figures.

"Those bidding over $100,000 by telegraph will please state whether they wish publication of the same withheld until the photographs of the bidders can reach the office by mail.

"Bids of a million and over will be regarded as insincere and will not be noticed."

GREAT MIX-UP BETWEEN LOVERS AT THE BUTLER

"A RUNAWAY HONEYMOON" AT THE LITTLE THEATER MAKES A HIT.

"The Runaway Honeymoon" at the Butler drew a house that nearly excelled that of the opening night. The "Honeymoon" was a laugh producer from start to finish and the audience was kept in a constant roar. From the evidence produced it appears that a mother and her young daughter elope secretly with a father and his son. The father elopes with the daughter and the son elopes with the mother. Great.

Then they switch and mid a great deal of confusion and songs by that beautiful young chorus everything ends O. K. and they live happily ever afterwards.

This piece will be presented again this evening and tomorrow night the company will present one of the best pieces in their repertoire, "My Wife's Family." This play has always succeeded in making a hit wherever it has been presented and as Manager Aylesworth says it is better than the last two presented, it must be a winner.

SIX WATCHES ARE STOLEN BY BOLD ROBBER

THIEF ENTERS THE JEWELRY STORE OF W. L. YOUNG LAST EVENING.

A burglar with an unlimited amount of nerve made a haul last night from the jewelry store of W. L. Young, which is situated next to the Vienna cafe on Main street. Mr. Young locked the store at 7 o'clock and went to dinner. On his return about two hours later he discovered that a burglar had entered the place and confiscated six watches, five being gold filled and one silver. The watches were kept in a common case that was hung on the wall.

Entrance to the store was gained by picking or opening the lock which is of the common variety and which nearly any ordinary door key will open. A large number of people were constantly passing the place and the burglar must have worked in a manner that led the pedestrians to believe he was an employee of the place. The robbery was reported to the police about 9:30 o'clock, but the officers are completely in the dark as to the culprit for there is no clue to work on.

THREE LEASES AT PIONEER WILL SOON SHIP ORE

T. & T. RAILWAY HAS MADE A PRELIMINARY SURVEY TO THE NEW CAMP.

Dick Johnson, the popular traveling agent of the Tonopah and Tidewater railroad, came up from Rhyolite yesterday and spent the day here transacting business.

"There is a great deal of activity throughout the southern district," said Mr. Johnson, "and the various camps there are beginning to hum. In Pioneer three leases, the Rogers, Jim Dandy and Jonathan are making preparations to ship ore and the first consignment will leave within the next two weeks.

"The Tonopah and Tidewater has made a preliminary survey from Springdale to Pioneer and there is a possibility of the company extending their line to that camp."

Mr. Johnson leaves this morning for his headquarters in Rhyolite.

THE TOYMAKER TO BE PRODUCED BY STUDENTS

MEMBERS OF TONOPAH HIGH SCHOOL MAY PRESENT THE FAMOUS PLAY.

The students of the Tonopah high school are contemplating making arrangements for the production of the play that made Ferris Hartman famous, "The Toy Maker." Their idea is to present the play about two weeks before the time school closes and are now corresponding with a young lady in the eastern part of the state who superintended the production of the entertainment by the high school in Elko. The play is one that has been presented by many of the leading theatrical companies and if produced by the local students there is no doubt of its success.

AN AMENDED COMPLAINT FILED IN MINING CASE

SUES TO SET ASIDE SALE OF CONSERVATIVE CLAIM OF VALLEY VIEW.

James Morris and H. J. Lyons, through their attorneys, McIntosh and Cooke, yesterday filed an amended complaint in their suit against W. J. Tobin et al, over the possession of the Conservative claim of the Valley View property at Pioneer. This claim was sold by the directors of the company without consulting the stockholders and the plaintiff's ask that the sale be set aside. In the original complaint no mention was made of the Gold Hills Mining and Milling company, which now controls the ground.

CHAS. CONRAD WILL BE BURIED THIS AFTERNOON

WILL EXTEND S. P. RAILROAD TO HAWTHORNE

ROAD THAT WAS DESTROYED THREE YEARS AGO WILL BE REPLACED.

From information received yesterday that is considered absolutely reliable it is learned that the Southern Pacific will in a short time commence repairing the railroad grade between Thorne and Hawthorne, and will be running trains into the Lucky Boy district in ninety days.

The rails on the Hawthorne branch of the Southern Pacific were taken up about three years ago when that place surrendered the county seat of Esmeralda to Goldfield.

The distance from the main line to Hawthorne is seven miles, and fourteen to Lucky Boy.

This information was brought to the city by J. A. Digges, who recently returned from that camp.

TOM LOCKHART BUYS INTEREST AT MANHATTAN

PURCHASES GROUP OF CLAIMS IN HEART OF PLACER DISTRICT FOR $10,000.

Thomas G. Lockhart, the Goldfield mine operator, returned from a trip to Manhattan Tuesday evening and left yesterday for his home in the southern city. During his stay in the great placer camp, Mr. Lockhart purchased the Amethyst group of claims from James W. Riggles for the sum of $10,000. This group contains a great area of the placer gulch.

In conversation with a Bonanza representative yesterday Mr. Lockhart stated that in the near future a large force of men would be employed on this property and the developments would be conducted in a systematic manner.

This sale is but one of the many that are being transacted daily in the northern camp and demonstrates that capital is fast being interested.

UNKNOWN WRITER DEDICATES POEM TO 'PHONE GIRLS

AN ADMIRER STATES A FEW TRUTHS IN A FEW STANZAS OF POETRY.

An unknown admirer yesterday sent the following spring poetry to the girls of the local telephone office. We heartily agree with the writer:

THE TONE.
What do we best remember?
It is always the tone
So ever speak cheerily
When you take up the phone.

There is a girl down at central,
Who has feelings, too,
So don't speak like the world
Was made only for you.

Their hearts may be aching;
They have troubles, too,
So speak like their welfare
Was something to you.
You will never regret
If others you cheer,
And while you are passing
You'll to others grow dear.

We each have our part
In this world to play
So let us be helpful
And cheer when we may.

And not only while speaking
To the girl at the phone
But when speaking to others
Forget not the tone.
